No Sign Of Italian Bark

Stranded Cavour Breaks Up and Drifts Away--Captain Waiting Instructions.

Not a vestige of the Italian bark Cavour remains on the spit where it was stranded. Twenty-four hours after it struck, the vessel, together with the cargo, had washed away, so it is doubtful if any one who visits the scene of the wreck today will be able to carry away even a souvenir of the disaster. Captain Lofnaos was busy yesterday cabling to its owner, and will receive instructions as to what course to pursue.

Captain Hoben, Lloyd's surveyor, had occasion to inspect the Cavour while she was at Portland, and while she was pronounced to be in need of slight repairs, there was no cause for anxiety. The bark leaked, but not more than was customary for a wooden hull vessel. She was built in Nova Scotia 22 years ago, and so was not considered too old for service. The cargo was received at the North Pacific mill, and was valued at $16,158.

Owing to quarantine regulations that recently became operative, relative to immigration, the crew of the Cavour underwent an examination by Dr. Earle on the return of the men to this port. Dr. Earle pronounces the men to be in fairly good health, there appearing nothing in their physical condition to debar them from remaining in the country. The crew is composed of Italians, Peruvians, Spaniards and Portuguese.

WENTZ NOT IN CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Dec. 10.—It has been rumored here that Edward L. Wentz, son of the Philadelphia millionaire, who was kidnaped several months ago, is in a Cincinnati hospital recovering from a wound received in a battle between the kidnapers and officers two weeks ago near Bristol, Tenn. Inquiry at the different hospitals in this city failed to show the presence of Wentz at any of the institutions.

JAPANESE DIET OPENS.

Tokio, Dec. 10.—The emperor opened the diet this morning. In referring to the situation with regard to Russia, he only said that his ministers are now conducting, with prudence and circumspection, important international negotiations for the preservation of peace in the far east, and of Japan's rights and interests.

A Costly Mistake.

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, dizziness, headache, liver or bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c, at Chas. Rogers' drug store.

An employe of Contractor Kankonen was seriously injured at the Clatsop mill today by a 20-foot fall from the top of one of the buildings. The unfortunate man broke an arm, dislocated the wrist of the other arm, dislocated a finger, broke his nose, and had his face badly bruised, besides sustaining severe injuries through the concussion with mother earth. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital, where the injuries were given attention.
